

MAY GO OVER TO A SPECIAL SESSION

Prospects of Primary Election Bill in Senate and Assembly.

RAILROAD TAX BILLS

Chances In Favor of at Least Some Increase for the Larger Roads.

HOPES FOR OSTEOPATHY BILL

Madison, Wis., April 11.—The primary election contest will next week be transferred back from the senate to the assembly, with the question on concurrence in the Hagemaster substitute applying the primary system only to the election of county officers, and then only when the county adopts the system by vote of the people. It is not expected by anyone that the assembly will concur in this amendment.

To accomplish this the opposition to the Stevens substitute will have to gain twenty votes, as the seventeen democrats who voted with them against the Stevens bill will vote against any primary election bill that may be offered. It is probable that instead of this the assembly will tack on an amendment to the Hagemaster bill extending its application to include members of the legislature, which will make it the same bill as was introduced by Chairman Hutton in the senate, and defeated. There is little doubt that the Stalwarts of the senate can hold votes enough to defeat it again.

A conference committee made up of the members of the two houses would be the next step, and the primary bill is not likely to be finally disposed of much before the end of the session, with the possibility that it, with the congressional apportionment, another vexatious problem, may go over to a special session. The bill will be messaged over to the assembly Monday evening, and will probably be sent to the committee on privileges and elections.

Praise Senator Whitehead.
Senator Whitehead's great speech against the bill in the debate Thursday evening was by far the strongest argument that has been made on either side either before the committee or on the floor, and is pronounced by men who have been around the legislature for a long time to be the ablest effort that has been heard in either house of the legislature for many years. The most radical friend of the bill does not think of questioning Senator Whitehead's sincerity. He stated in opening his argument that he did not expect a change of vote, but he wanted to express his reasons for opposing the bill and he did so most forcibly. In summing up a few of his objections he said: "It would enable the men who make politics a business to build up a machine which you could never dislodge, and whose machinations you could never circumvent."

Hopes for Osteopathy Bill.
The osteopathy bill was the cause of a three-hour wrangle in the assembly Friday, and the only result reached was to kill the amendment which provided a separate board of examiners for the osteopaths. The majority against this was about 45 to 35, but a few at least of those who voted against the amendment will vote for the bill. It was finally laid over until Wednesday, when it will be a special order and will be fought out to a finish. The final vote will be close, with the chances, it is believed, slightly in favor of its passage. One of the hardest fights of the session has been over this bill.

Increased Railway Taxation.
Increased railway taxation will be the next new bone of contention on the floor of the assembly. The committee on assessment and collection of taxes took a vote Wednesday on the bill increasing the rate for the big roads from 4 to 5 1-2 per cent., and the result was five to four against it. It was agreed, however, not to report the bill until another vote was taken, and rumor has it that there will be a chance then. Whatever the committee report is, there will be a lively contest over it on the floor, with the chances in favor of at least some increase in railway taxation. Report has it that the portion of the committee which reports against the bill will base its opposition on the statement in Governor La Follette's message that railroad property is paying a fairer portion of its taxes than is personal property.

For the St. Louis Fair.
The bill providing for Wisconsin's representation at the St. Louis fair is awaiting the action of the claims committee. The bill carries an appropriation of $25,000, and while the amount is not large, the committee wants to see the money within reach before it recommends the appropriation. It is probable, however, that the bill will be passed.

Senate Apportionment.
The apportionment of the state into senatorial districts will be taken up this week, and promises to give more trouble than was anticipated. Sheboygan county which was reduced from three to two assembliesmen, wants to be recompensed by being made one senatorial district, but the committee does not see how this can easily be done. There are other conflicting interests which may cause trouble, and the committee will have a few busy hours before it agrees on a report. So far as the congressional apportionment is concerned, it is "still entirely in the air."

BELOIT WORKMEN GROWING HOSTILE

Propose Radical Action if Business Interests Oppose the Electric Road Now Proposed.

Beloit, Wis., April 13.—Papers are being circulated among the workmen of the city and being generally signed. They read as follows: "Beloit Workmen's Association: Owing to the hostility shown toward the interurban electric franchise by Beloit's merchants, we, the undersigned will attend a meeting (to be called in the near future) for the purpose of forming an association and employing a competent person to make all of our purchases in Chicago or Milwaukee, at as near wholesale prices as possible, and to express displeasure at the action taken by Beloit's merchants."

BRONZE BUST FOR WARSHIP WISCONSIN

Portrait of Miss Stephenson, Who Christened Battleship, Will Grace Forward Cabin of Vessel.

Milwaukee, April 12.—A life-size bust in bronze of Miss Elizabeth Stephenson, of Marinette, who christened the battleship Wisconsin, will grace the forward deck of that ship, as the gift of her father, Isaac Stephenson.

Mr. Stephenson's idea was to present to the battleship some tribute in return or the honor done his daughter when she was chosen to christen it. The idea of a bronze bust of his daughter was accepted as soon as suggested and Sculptor Paul J. Kupper has been chosen to do the work. It will, however, be a bust of Mrs. J. Earl Morgan of Oshkosh, when it is finally completed.

After Miss Stephenson's marriage on April 24 she has planned to be absent for some time on her honeymoon, and about June 1 will be in Milwaukee some time to sit for Mr. Kupper. Like the Badger which Mr. Kupper modeled and which is now on the Wisconsin, the bust will be alloyed bronze.

Wilhelmina Expects an Heir.
Amsterdam, April 13.—Queen Wilhelmina is expecting an heir in November and has stopped taking her customary drives. She will be twenty-one in August and was married on February 7th to the Duke Henry of Mecklenburg.

INCUBATORS OF 600 EGG CAPACITY; HENNERY THAT COVERS TWO ACRES

The Largest Establishment of the Kind Known—Product Does Not Miss the Mother Hen—Broilers for the Chicago Market.

One of the latest additions to the industries of Janesville is the Glen Etta Poultry yard, owned and operated by J. A. Cunningham. This is located in Riverview park and the yard covers about two acres of land and all of the modern facilities for carrying on an extensive business in this line are provided.

Two incubators, having a capacity of 600 eggs are kept full all of the time and five large brooders take care of the chicks as soon as they are hatched. Mr. Cunningham has just completed a brooder house 50 by 15 feet which will be used entirely for the small chicks and other large houses will be at once erected for the chickens when they leave the brooder house.

The first batch from one of the incubators came off this week and it is certainly a lively lot and they do not appear to miss the old mother hen at all.

It is the intention of the owner of this yard to raise broilers for the Chicago market and he has assurances from the commission people there that they can use all that he can send them and this will be no small number when it is taken into consideration that a batch of from five to six hundred chickens is expected every three weeks.

If close attention and modern facilities will make this enterprise a success we are sure that Janesville will soon have a poultry business of which she can be proud. It is said that it has been modeled on so extensive a plan that it is doubtless the largest enterprise of the kind in the world.

WHARTON GOLDEN, A STAR WITNESS TELLS OF PLOT TO MURDER GOEBEL

Caleb Powers Told Him the Governor Would Have to Be Killed, and Taylor Would Pardon the Assassin—Defense Opens Its Case.

Frankfort, Ky., April 13.—Wharton Golden was the star witness today in the closing hours of the prosecution's side in the trial of Garnett and Ripley, charged with complicity in the Goebel murder. Golden came from Colorado to testify. He said Governor Taylor told him that Representatives Hall and others were preparing to settle the fight in the legislature and asked if he and his men would stand by them. Golden said they would.

On January 20 the witness and Caleb Powers took a walk to the cemetery. Powers said that Goebel would have to be killed and that Taylor would pardon the assassin. Powers said that the mountain would be here and it was done. Golden saw Ripley in Adjutant General Collier's office just prior to the assassination. Collier told Ripley he could furnish guns for the Pleasureville company and Ripley said he could buy Winchester if he could not do better.

Judge Bruce of Henry county testified that no application was made to the county judge for the formation of Ripley's men and that was mustered in contrary to law.

The prosecution then closed and the court overruled a motion of the defense for peremptory instructions and Attorney O'Neill made the statement for the opening in the defense.

CHINA CAN AFFORD TO PAY $300,000,000

The Ministers at Peking Receive a Report on the Resources of the Mongolian Empire.

Peking, April 13.—The committee of Ministers which is considering China's financial resources has reached the conclusion, based upon what information is thus far obtainable, that $300,000,000 in gold can be raised without injuring China's resources. The examination by the committee into the subject is thus far incomplete, and it will probably subsequently learn that other Chinese resources for indemnities are available. The Ministers openly express their desire that the foreign troops leave Peking. They are seemingly as anxious for the departure as were the besieged Ministers for the arrival of the troops.

American Plan Not Favored.

Paris, April 13.—A dispatch from Peking says the American government has handed through their representative, Mr. Rockhill, a proposal to the various Ministers to the effect that the powers should come to an understanding in regard to the indemnities to be paid by China. The American proposal is that China shall pay a lump indemnity of $40,000,000 to the powers, which shall be divided among the various governments in proportion to the losses of their subjects and the expenses of their expeditions. M. Pichon, the French Minister at Peking, regards this sum as inadequate, especially as America claims $5,000,000 as her share and England wants $4,800,000. It is believed in Paris that the proposal of the American government will not be accepted by the Minister at Peking.

Robber Bands Captured.

Berlin, April 13.—According to a dispatch from Peking, dated yesterday, to the Kohlsche Zeitung, a robber band of four Americans and four Chinese was recently captured by a German outpost at Tung-Kia-Fu, west of Tientsin.

COLONIAL TEA AND OLD FASHION PARTY

Philomathean Club Enjoys Themselves This Afternoon at the Home of Mrs. H. D. Murdock.

Members of the Philomathean club are enjoying an old fashioned party and colonial tea at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Murdock, 107 South Third street this afternoon. No outsiders, not even the husbands, of the club members were invited.

The Philomathean club was organized as a study club last fall and has a membership of twenty women. A the very beginning of its career it was decided to be guided by the well-known saying that "all work and no play makes Jack a dull boy" and by the rules of the club the members enjoy two social sessions each year. United States history has been the subject of the club's study and this colonial tea is the second of the enjoyable entertainments. The club met at three o'clock, all the members being dressed in old fashioned costumes. Some of the dresses were very handsome and when the ladies were all assembled they made a quaint group. The costumes caused much amusement.

The program for the afternoon was in perfect keeping with the occasion, as far as the selections chosen were concerned. It included a vocal solo by Mrs. Mary Merrill, piano solos by Mrs. H. D. Murdock and Mrs. Will Skelly and readings by Mrs. A. C. Thorpe and Mrs. F. H. Koebelin, all of which were very enjoyable and were heard with great pleasure. The hit of the afternoon was made by Mrs. Koebelin, who under the guise of "Clippings," indulged in amusing allusions to the various members of the club. The clippings were supposed to come from newspapers published in 1940 and Mrs. Koebelin's glances into the future caused much merriment.

The gathering will come to a happy close with the Colonial tea. The menu is a very substantial one and includes baked beans, corned beef, currant biscuits, brown bread, apple butter, cabbage salad, pickles, cheese, doughnuts, tarts, apple pie, pumpkin pie, white cake, coffee, tea, nuts and raisins.

The committee having in charge the arrangements for this unique and enjoyable entertainment consisted of Mesdames C. J. Myhr, Mary Merrill, Fred Howe, Walter Johnson and O. F. Meltzer.

Reporter-Artist a Suicide.

Chicago, April 13.—Bert Cassidy, a reporter for the Daily News, shot and killed himself in the city editor's room of that newspaper. He had arrived at the office a few moments before and was engaged in writing a story on his typewriter. Bert Cassidy was an old time newspaper man and a clever artist as well. He worked with pen and pencil in Denver and Kansas City before coming to Chicago.

ICE BLOCKS ST. CLAIR RIVER.

George Grounded Between Algonac and Marine City—Lake St. Clair Low. Algonac, Mich., April 13.—The big ice jam which reaches to the bottom of the river from fifteen to forty feet in depth is grounded between this village and Marine City, practically blocking the river. The water here is comparatively low, but at St. Clair last night and this morning it reached the high water mark, flooding the lowlands and filling basements with water. There is a slow movement of ice between here and Marine City, and the water is slowly percolating through, and, under the jam, wearing holes in it. Above St. Clair and part way to Port Huron, there is not much ice. From Palm Beach to St. Clair there is no open water. There is a solid mass of ice below here at the flats that promises to make trouble. Cottages and docks are being slowly carried away and vesselmen fear the channel will be so changed as to make navigation dangerous. Nearly all vessels are in Bell river. The level of Lake St. Clair is four feet below the normal, uncovering thousands of acres of land.

Philippine Rebels Choose a Leader.

Paris, April 13.—Agoncillo, the agent of Aguinaldo in Paris, has received a cablegram announcing that the Filipino, Gen. Sandico, has been elected to succeed Aguinaldo as commanding general of the Filipino forces as well as dictator during the continuation of the insurrection. Sandico belongs to a distinguished family residing at Pandacan, near Manila. He is a man of energy, and is well educated, speaking several European languages.

LIVELY WORK ON MILWAUKEE BOARD

Stock and Grain Exchange Was the Busiest Place Yesterday in Twenty Years.

Milwaukee, Wis., April 13.—The Milwaukee Chamber of Commerce looked like a real board of trade yesterday. It was the liveliest day that the chamber has experienced in twenty years and over a million in option wheat was sold. The ball started as soon as the gong sounded. Nearly every local commission house seemed to have orders to buy or sell.

A pit was improvised and five minutes after the opening the brokers were pulling and hauling, running and shouting, and, as an old-timer said, it seems as if the Milwaukee market had come back. Practically all trading was done on Chicago receipts and the orders for the most part came through Chicago, although Minneapolis and other points did some trading here. Chicago prices ruled here. At the close of the session the traders adjourned to the lower corridor of the building and for an hour there was a heavy put an call business.

President Wall was surprised to learn at the close that a million bushels of wheat had changed hands as he expected that it would take a few weeks for the trades to reach that figure.

CHICAGO BURGLARS KILL TWO.

One of the Gang Wounded in Pittsburg and the Others Captured.

Pittsburg, April 13.—A gang of Chicago burglars, headed by a man supposed to be "Kid" Nichols, shot and killed two men here, and in turn one of the gang was wounded, while the others, two men and two women, were captured. Their first bloody deed was to kill Thomas D. Kahne, a Mount Washington grocer, who gave up his life trying to defend his wife, who was being chloroformed. A few hours later the hiding place of the gang was discovered at 32 Fulton street, and a fusillade of shots followed. During the exchange of bullets City Detective Patrick E. Fitzgerald was killed by Edward Wright, who a moment later fell with three wounds. His companions then surrendered. The man supposed to be "Kid" Nichols gave the name of Robert Wilcox. His wife, Jennie, confessed they had all recently come from Chicago.

FALLS HEIR TO A $9,000 FORTUNE

George Rentschler, Main Street Florist, Has Streak of Good Luck.

DEATH OF RICH UNCLE

Who Leaves an Estate on the Rhine, in Germany, Valued at $125,000.

WAS A COMPLETE SURPRISE

George Rentschler, the Main street florist, has fallen heir to a fortune of $9,000, left him by a relative in the old country and is feeling extremely well pleased over his good luck.

He received word this morning of the death of an uncle, Jacob Eberle, of Hanover, Germany on March 6. He was also notified that the estate was valued at half a million marks or about $125,000 in United States currency which is to be divided among the relatives, of which there are quite a number in this country and Germany.

Mr. Rentschler has two brothers in this country, one at Madison, Wis., and the other at St. Jacobs, Ill. He also has a sister residing on the Rhine in Bavaria, Germany. She states that the amount bequeathed to each of the family is 35,000 marks or nearly $9,000.

Mr. Eberle, also left considerable money to be divided among the people who were formerly in his employ, and a large sum left to the small town in Germany in which he was born. These legacies helped to cut down the amount coming to his relatives to a great extent, or they would have received a much larger sum.

Mr. Rentschler is very much pleased over the prospect of getting this money which will come in very nicely in helping him to develop his business.

The notice was much of a surprise to him as he was not expecting anything from this source. He will at once join with his brothers in taking measures to secure his share of the property.

MEDICINE CHIEF OF WINNEBAGO

Going Away, a Full Blooded Indian, Given the Position to Succeed John Thunder.

St. Paul, April 13.—Great Medicine Chief White Beaver (Colonel D. Frank Powell) conferred today on Going Away, a full-blood Winnebago Indian, the title of Medicine Chief of the Winnebago nation to succeed John Thunder, who was buried at sundown near Black River Falls last Sunday with all the pomp and ceremony shown one of royal blood.

The appointment is to be confirmed by the grand council of chiefs and warriors, which meets at Black River Falls in the near future, and which will subject the new chief to an ordeal which will test his fitness for the place.

With the administering of the oath the new chief inscribes in blood his name on the register of the tribe.

Bars of Gold Found.

RURAL MAIL ROUTES AND GOOD ROADS

People Are Notified That the Roads Must Be Kept Improved or Service Will Be Discontinued.

Washington, D. C., April 13.—The extension of rural free delivery and the modified regulations being prepared to govern the establishment of the service will no doubt be an important aid to the good roads movement.

One of the prerequisites to the establishment of rural delivery is that the roads in the territory to be covered shall be in good condition in order that the mail service may not be interrupted.

An important addition to the regulations in this connection has been found necessary on account of the bad condition of the roads in a number of the western and northwestern states where, during the past spring, the delivery of mail on many routes has been interrupted from one to seven days. This condition of affairs is found to exist in the Northwestern states more than any other section, although full reports have not been received.

The list of routes where the mail service was thus interrupted shows forty cases in Iowa, seven in Minnesota, five in Wisconsin, several in Illinois, and isolated cases in the southern states. These routes were established at a season of the year when the roads were easily traversable and no consideration was given by the agent to the possibility that the roads might deteriorate so as to interfere with the delivery of the mail.

It is announced at the postoffice department that he people on the routes affected will be notified at once that unless the roads are so improved as to obviate the recurrence of such a condition, the service will be discontinued.

PLATT AMENDMENT WAS REJECTED

Cubans Express Their Disapproval by a Vote of 18 to 10—Will Send Commission to Washington.

Havana, April 3.—The constitutional convention today voted on a combination proposition to send a commission to Washington after categorical rejection of the Platt amendment. The vote was divided on the motion in this form, some believing that a commission would be necessary after a flat rejection of the Platt amendment.

The motion was carried 18 to 10, some members voting against it who are known to be opposed to the Platt amendment proposition. It is proposed to elect tomorrow members of the commission.

Beyond a doubt the last few days have shown the development of a feeling of discontent and resentment in Havana. This is due to various causes more or less directly connected with the method of handling the political situation, especially the arrogation of interference with the judicial authority.

This has been illustrated in the case of the suppression of a newspaper, in the matter of the gas company, in the arbitrary imprisonment of members of the staff of a labor union paper, called L'Estivador, without trial, and in the position of the military government in the matter of the choice of a mayor of Havana.

Just Between Ourselves

Apologies of the great interest which has been aroused in the library by the proposed new building, I wonder how many of you have ever visited the children's room. Let me tell you that if you have never done so, you have missed a privilege and a pleasure and if I dared speak my mind quite freely, I would add that you are neglecting a duty.

I dropped in one Monday afternoon not long ago and the two hours that I spent by the side of the librarian were a revelation to me, bringing home with forcefulness the great need and the inestimable value of this movement whose first year has been crowned with such signal success.

In front of the librarian's desk were waiting children three and four rows deep, their fresh, eager faces making a picture that would appeal to the heart of any one who has one single feeling in sympathy with childhood. In all that crowd of children there was no restless pushing for place. Each one took his or her turn quietly and I bethought me of hosts of older people who might profit by a few lessons in considerate politeness from them.

During the hour between four and five o'clock, 110 children were served by actual count and the exchange of each book meant also the exchange of a smile and a pleasant word between the librarian and the child upon whom she was waiting. Once or twice there was a gentle rebuke over a misused book but always there was evidence of the deep sympathy which the librarian has for the children and which makes her so successful in her management of them.

Mrs. Minnie Menzies is the presiding genius of the children's room. More than that, she is the friend of every child who enters it, whether the youthful seeker of books comes clothed in rags or in garments of the latest style. In the children's room there is no recognition of social lines and only observance of the few library rules is demanded. In most instances it is cheerfully given, and perhaps the most promising feature of the children's room is that it is frequented by children of the street. The newboys visit it between their work times, spending time in the perusal of books that would otherwise be passed on street corners. To the children who use the library as a reading room, the bound Youth's Companion, Harper's Young People and St. Nicholas are the attraction.

Open shelves are the rule in the children's room. Each child selects the book he wants and I was privileged to witness one of the most powerful arguments in favor of this arrangement. An urchin, about ten years old, I should judge, handed the librarian two volumes so immense that my curiosity was aroused and I looked at their titles. One was "Travels in India and Siam" and the other was "Japan." When asked if they were for his older brother he said no, for himself and when asked if he liked travel books his face lighted up and he said, "Oh yes ma'am" very eagerly. Then I looked at his card and you would be surprised if you could have seen the name on it. Suffice it to say that he comes from a home where books that tend towards good must be almost unknown. His face was freckled and his clothes were ragged but he looked positively handsome as he stood there with his eager appetite for wholesome learning. Who shall say what a great thing in that boy's future the interest aroused by the children's library shall be? What librarian, hurried and worried by the demands of the people wanting the latest novel, would ever have dreamed of giving such a scrap of a boy books seemingly so far beyond him? If I had seen no more of the children's room than this one instance it would have won my friendship forever. His is but one of the many lives which are daily being touched by the influence of good books, an influence which no man will gainsay.

Perhaps next to the books the children take the keenest interest in the very fine collection of stuffed birds which has been loaned by H. L. Skaylen. F. F. Stevens has also given them much pleasure by sending to the room a case containing coral specimens. The brain coral is said to be one of the finest in the world. Growing plants, the gift of the women's clubs, beautify the room and the walls are ornamented with pictures of Indians and of noted men. The furniture in the room belongs to the Angeworm club and the Janesville Art League, with the exception of the kindergarten table and chairs which were the gift of Mrs. A. P. Lovejoy. These are a valued addition to the room and the books for the little ones are kept in a separate case. Mrs. Lovejoy has also presented a bulletin screen. All of the special anniversaries and birthdays of famous men are observed in the children's room, Mrs. Menzies providing special bulletins.

The children's library has nearly outgrown its present quarters and the new building will be warmly welcomed by the friends of this department. It may be of interest to many to know something about the statistics concerning the use of books. A record has been kept since last June and shows the circulation for each month as follows: June, 1,951; July, 915; August, 831; September, 892; October, 1,604; November, 2,281; December, 1,800; January, 1,908; February, 2,193; March, 2,237.

But statistics, while suggestive, are no measure of what has been accomplished. The school library committee, composed of members from the various women's clubs, with Mrs. D. D. Mayne as chairman, arranged a series of grade ladders which were given to the school children. These ladders contained a list of the books which should be read in connection with the school work of each grade and the scholar is supposed to climb the ladder by reading all the books. This idea was recognized and praised by Miss Marvin of the state library commission in her new book's bulletin and Mrs. Menzies has received inquiries concerning it from many parts of the state and even from a student in the library department of the Pratt institute.

If you are a friend of children visit their library. If you are a skeptic concerning its power for good spend a few hours in watching its everyday workings and you will be convinced. It has a mission whose importance cannot be over-estimated and your interest will be warmly welcomed by the gracious gentlewoman who presides as librarian with such tact, courtesy and wisdom. An eminent authority has declared that the people of Janesville should appreciate her because her superior as a children's librarian is not to be found in the United States. The secret of her marvelous power lies in the fact that the service which she gives is not of hand and head only but of the heart. She has an able assistant in Miss Genevieve Wilson. L. F. B.

MYSTERIOUS GYPSY QUEEN

Zyra of Egypt, a Woman of Note.
A few days ago an olive skinned Oriental beauty, with jet black hair and eyes, arrived in the city, and rented the former Richardson shoe store for the purpose of informing the public on matters of the future, etc. Zyra is a mystery. She comes from Egypt, and is a queen of gypsies in her own country; she inherits the art of foretelling events as well as reading the past. Since being in Janesville Queen Zyra's work has been most satisfactory, upwards of 1,000 people having called on her.

The famous easy washer, Maple City Soap, works perfectly in hard water.

ENJOYED A RARE MUSICAL TREAT

Janesville's musicians and lovers of the divine art enjoyed an evening of rare pleasure last evening at the Congregational church with Seeboeck, one of the world's greatest pianists and Master Raphael Groff, a young violinist who, although only twelve years old has attracted universal attention by his wonderful talent. Seeboeck possessed the skill, the intelligence and the musician's soul which makes him a great artist and he knows how to give pleasure to the people who hear him. His program of selections was very fine, and he was forced to respond to an encore after each number.

From the first Master Groff was a favorite with the audience and his masterly playing proclaimed him to be a genius with a brilliant future before him. The entire recital was one of the finest and most artistic ever given in the city.

Heavy timbers are in the room and will not be out of the way by Thursday night. The exhibition which will be given is really an open session of the class and will consist of the usual class exercises, one of the objects of the exhibition being to acquaint people with the value and meaning of physical culture work.

Wild With Eczema

Fire Could Not Have Been More Painful.

"After spending two years in taking all kinds of medicines that were suggested for eczema, but without avail, my mother was induced to take Hood's Sarsaparilla. The result was wonderfully gratifying. Her limbs had been terribly lacerated by the disease, and there were times when fire could not have been more painful. She was, in fact, almost wild. Two bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla completely cured her, and not a trace of eczema was left." E. W. DECKER, Gardiner, N. Y.

Eat Well, Sleep Well.

"Hood's Sarsaparilla has been a great blessing to me. I was weak, irritable, tired and nervous; had no appetite and was always sad and despondent. One day I got hold of a little book about Hood's Sarsaparilla. I looked it over and resolved to try a bottle. I was better before it was gone, so I kept on until I had taken five bottles. I can now sleep well, feel cheerful and can do all my work, including plain sewing, and I can walk two or three miles a day. I am 55 years old and now feel that life is worth living." Mrs. EMMA SMITH, 68 E. Mitchell St., Oswego, N. Y.

Critical Period of Life.

"I took Hood's Sarsaparilla during the critical period of my life, and now, at the age of 60 years, I am strong and healthy. It is a great medicine for the blood. I find Hood's to be the best." Mrs. H. POUROY, 22 Lansing Street, Auburn, N. Y.

You can buy Hood's Sarsaparilla of any druggist. Be sure to ask for Hood's and do not accept any substitute.

MEDAL CONTEST AT THE HIGH SCHOOL

The Winners Last Evening—Students Selected to Attend the League Declamatory Contest.

The winners in the annual medal contest at the high school last evening were Miss Belle MacLean, Lovejoy medal; Miss Libby Gravelly, Recorder medal; Miss Nina Hall, Mahoney medal; Miss Lucy Bigelow, Loomis medal, all being members of the Junior class except Miss Hall, who is a sophomore.

Those who were chosen to represent the school in the league declamatory contest were Misses Lucy Bigelow, Eureka Kimball and Hattie Decker.

In the absence of Supt. Mayne, Prof. George W. Dudley presided at the contest which was largely attended. The judges were Prof. Tawney of Beloit; Supt. Terry of Waukesha and Supt. Hageman of Fort Atkinson.

The first contest was in oratory, the contestants being Miss Belle MacLean, who was easily first, both for excellence of delivery and the thought in her oration, "Grecian Myths and Fairy Tales," Frank Hoyt who treated of the "Future of China" concisely and well; and Ross Bump whose subject, "Books, True Friends to Man," was creditably handled.

The prize poem was selected from the manuscript handed in and was read by its author, Miss Nina Hall. It was entitled the "Legend of Mount Kalman," and was very cleverly written.

In the extemporaneous speaking contest Stowe Lovejoy spoke forcefully on "What Qualities A Successful Business Man Must Possess;" Libby Gravelly spoke easily and pleasingly on "How Does the High School Fit Russell Zeiminger made some amusing remarks on "Tramps; How to Deal With Them" which made a decided hit; Frank Hoyt advanced some good arguments on "Does Funston Deserve Promotion for the Capture of Aguinaldo?" Arthur Baumann drew the subject "The Value of Inter-Scholastic Contests" and becoming slightly confused at the outset abandoned the contest.

The declamatory contest was the most evenly matched of the evening and there was a great variety of opinion as to the ranking of the speakers. Hattie Decker gave a very pretty and natural rendition of "Franz;" Lucy Bigelow was exceptionally pleasing in her artistic recitation "How the La Rue Skates Were Lost;" Eureka Kimball's recitation, "Helene Thaumre," showed great dramatic ability and unusual talent and Archie Reid was very fine in a strong selection, "The Shepherd's Trophy." All the contestants have decided talent.

The presentation of the medals was pleasingly made by the former owners, Grace Tennant, oratory; Dell Miltimore, poetry; Victor Marquise, extemporaneous speaking; and Joseph Fisher, Declamation.

A delightful feature of the program was the appearance of the high school chorus of about sixty voices under the direction of Prof. W. S. Gaskins. The chorus sang several selections, doing marvelously good work. The singing of "The Lost Chord," with the solo part sweetly sung by Ray Ayers, was one of the most effective numbers of the evening.

CASE AGAINST THE ST. PAUL ROAD

An important case against the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railroad has been noticed for trial at the April term of the circuit court in this county.

Corwin C. Smith, a resident of Clinton, was employed by the railroad company as a brakeman on a freight train between Freeport and other points along the line. That on the night of January 9 while making a coupling at Freeport, his foot slipped in between the rails at a frog which was not properly blocked and before he could release it was knocked down by the cars and had his right leg so badly bruised and crushed that it was necessary to amputate it.

He demands damages in the sum of $50,000 for his injuries. The railroad company has filed its answer to the complaint and admits that the plaintiff was in the employ of the company when injured, but denies its liability. The company claims that the frog was not defective and that he did not catch his foot in it.

Fethers, Jeffris & Mout appear for the plaintiff and H. H. Fifield, general solicitor for the company and T. S. Nolan, appear for the defendant.

AMUSEMENT NOTES

One of the most substantial successes scored in theatricals in New York City last season was the production of Lottie Blair Parker's "Way Down East." It crowded the Manhattan theatre for seven months and the Academy of Music, 427 consecutive times, and nothing but the dog days of the later end of June caused its withdrawal. "Way Down East" has duplicated its New York success in Boston and Philadelphia. It will be presented at the Myers Grand tonight.

Dainty Anna Held and her original company are to be seen here in "Papa's Wife" at the Myers Grand on Friday, April 26. The appearance of Miss Held in this delightful musical comedy by Harry B. Smith and Reginald De Koven is in every respect a brilliant success. Miss Held is the title part, is more charming than ever, with her dainty beauty and winning ways, has developed her comedy talents to such an extent that she is now ranked as one of the leading comedienne in her line of work.

The version of "Quo Vadis" which will be presented here next Tuesday evening, follows the book closely, and in action admits of brilliant stage setting and startling effects. An especially capable cast has been engaged and the roles are well sustained. The main plot of the play is of necessity a sombre one, yet the beautiful love story of Lybia runs through it, and it is further brightened by flashes of wit and merriment.

The production of Goethe's immortal tragedy "Faust," which John Griffith will make at the Myers Grand on Thursday, April 18, is by far the most elaborate ever attempted of the play. The scenic environment with which he is surrounded and the company which support him have occupied the untiring efforts of his manager, Mr. A. Caldwell, for months.

Messrs. Jacobs and Steinberg, managers for the Standard Stock company, which will play a three night's engagement in our city, announce that they will present that roaring farce comedy, "McNulty's Aisle" on their opening night. This piece was written by George H. Emerick of New York City, author of Finegan's Ball, "Shooting the Chutes," etc., and is considered one of his best efforts. It will appear at the Grand beginning on Monday, April 22.

DON'T WORRY.

Advice is like medicine, easier to give than take. As a result, the world is long on advisors, and short on takers. A newspaper, however, is a privileged character, and as you never believe more than half what you see in the paper, the chances are that you won't take more than half a dose of advice on the familiar subject of worrying.

Some one said a long time ago, "To everything there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven."

"A time to be born, and a time to die, a time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted."

"A time to kill, and a time to heal; a time to break down, and a time to build up."

"A time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn, and a time to dance."

"A time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones together; a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing."

"A time to get, and a time to lose; a time to keep, and a time to cast away."

"A time to rend, and a time to sew; a time to speak, and a time to keep silence; and a time to speak."

"A time to love, and a time to hate; a time of war, and a time of peace."

In all the comprehensive list the old preacher failed to discover that there was a time to worry; and yet there are thousands of people who go through life, and into premature graves, not only unhappy themselves, but making everybody about them uncomfortable, because of worry.

Ask them why they worry, and they will tell you, they were born that way, and can't help it. While it is doubtless true that some people inherit a disposition to worry, it is equally true that many of this class cultivate the habit so industriously, that it becomes second nature, and like the old lady who "enjoyed poor health," they never have a good time except when they are worrying.

Here is a home where the wife and mother is a chronic worrier. The parlor curtains are down to prevent the sunshine from fading the carpet. The furniture is covered with sheeting to save it from the dust. The room is never open except for company. The sitting room is so neat and carefully watched, that it is painful for the family to occupy it. The children are cautioned twenty times a day to keep out of the dirt, and if the husband wants to smoke he must go out in the kitchen and smoke out the hired girl. The house is too good for every day use, and the wife spends most of her time with a dust cloth in her hand, and a worry in her mind, and as a result, the wrinkles get the start of her, and before middle life is reached she is prematurely old. She has worried herself to death, and all because of a house that was intended for a home, and not for a place of entertainment.

If this class of good women, and there are many of them, could realize that the friendships of life mean more than admiration of a house and furniture, and that the people who call to inspect the home, and go away to criticize, are not worth cultivating, there would be more genuine homes, and fewer places where people live.

Pull up the curtains and let in the sunshine. Open up the house and make it home like. Tell the children if they can't keep clean to keep as clean as they can. Let the husband smoke in the sitting room, and give the girl in the kitchen a chance to entertain some other fellow; change the worry for a song, and the frown for a smile, and when you're forty, the roses on your cheek will cause John to stop in admiration, and as he gives you an old time kiss and says, "How young you look, Mary," and all because you don't worry," you'll say in your heart, "A home is better than a house."

Here's a business man in middle life, stoop shouldered, and with serious face, showing the marks of care and anxiety. He is carrying on his back all the responsibility of a business that no man was ever intended to carry alone.

There is no holiday in his experience, for life is too short, and eternity too long, to take any rest this side of the grave. He is not acquainted with his family, except by sight; no one ever saw him at the theater, or at a party with his wife; the children see just enough of him on Sunday to satisfy them for the rest of the week; the men in his employ don't take on responsibility, because he carries it all himself, and is constantly worrying for fear something will go wrong.

Did you ever see that kind of a man? The cemetery is full of them. They all died young, or at least twenty-five years too soon. The world is charitable to such people, and you don't call it suicide, but that's the proper name for it.

This class of men never wake up to the fact that no man owns a corner on any particular line of work or business. The worker drops out, and another drops in, and the only vacancy that occurs is in the home. The machinery of life moves on just the same.

There is sound logic in the statement, "Take time to live, for you'll be a long time dead," and there's nothing that shortens life so much as worry.

The man who devotes long days to his business, and then carries it home with him, and dreams about it nights, and gets up in the morning more tired than when he went to bed—and there are thousands of men who do this—is just as sure to go under the sod twenty-five years ahead of time as he is to breathe.

You may say you can't help it. That's all nonsense. You might just as well say you can't help being dishonest. Cultivate habits of contentment, as you do habits of honesty, and the worry will fade out of life like the mist that the morning sun dispels.

When you leave the office or store, leave the business on the inside of the door. No one will steal it before morning. Meet the wife with a smile, and the children with a hurrah; get out into society and be a part of it. In other words, if you want to live out your allotted age, don't worry.

The man or woman who is doing the best they can in life, has no occasion to worry, in fact, they are handicapped when they do worry.

The minister goes through the year feeling that but little has been accomplished; forgetting that there is a seed time and harvest. The Sunday school teacher works faithfully, and is discouraged, because unable to realize the results of good influences, that mould the life and build character.

And so in every department of life, worry is recognized as the trouble-making factor. It may not be possible to dispel worry from every mind, but it is possible, by the help of the Master, to cultivate patience, and to get out of life much of happiness and joy that is too frequently absorbed by worry and needless anxiety.

HONEST ABE, U. S. M.

THE RURAL MAIL CARRIER ON HIS REGULAR TRIP.

Besides Delivering the Mail He Acts as a Confidential and Adviser to the Folks Along His Route Who Are in Trouble.

[Copyright, 1901, by C. B. Lewis.]

As I got along to Farmer White's the other day Mrs. White was down at the gate waiting for me, and after I had handed her out a paper she said:

"Abe, do you remember the letter I got four weeks ago, the one in a yellow envelope?"

"I think I do."

"It was from my sister in Iowa, you know."

"Yes."

"My sister Sarah, who married and went out there six years ago. Do you know I haven't even said a word to Jacob about that letter, and I did think I'd keep it all to myself, but I feel I can trust you. What do you think Sarah wrote me?"

"Can't possibly guess, and I can't stop long today."

"No, Abe; you could never guess, but I'm going to tell you. It's strict confidence, you know. I wouldn't hev it get out for nothin in the world. Waal, now, jest as true as you live and breathe, Sarah's had a row with her husband."

"BETWEEN ME'N YOU AND THE GATEPOST."

"No!"

"Yes, she has, and she wrote me all about it. He come home one day with a headache and found her readin a novel and chawin gum, and he flew mad and called her a lazy, shiftless hippodram. She flew mad and answered him back, and he kicked two chairs over, spanked the baby and busted in the bottom of the washtub."

"But what did he mean by hippodram?" I asked.

"Dunno, Abe. That's the word as plain as day; seems to be some sort of a word used out there. Sarah says it struck her like a club and almost knocked her over. She says she stood right up to Hiram and called him a darned cohort. That's another word they use out there, and Jacob says it means the next thing to a polecat. The fight was still goin on when Sarah wrote, and I'm awful anxious to know which licked. I wrote and told Sarah that if she give in first I'd never speak to her ag'in. Do you think it would be right for her to give in, Abe?"

"Can't hardly say."

"Would you advise me to write to her to kinder smile and be ready to make up whenever he was ready?"

"Yes, I think I would. Yes, that would be my private advice. I ain't advisin you officially, remember. I'm representin the United States through the postoffice department, and if the American eagle seems to roost on the brim of my hat and the stars and stripes to cover me from head to foot I'm no more stuck up over it than another would be. Officially I don't even know your name, but as a private citizen who used to work in a sawmill it's my opinion that you'd better write to Sarah and tell her to get ready to eat humble pie."

"Waal, I'll do as you say about it. I know you wouldn't tell me to if you didn't think it was best. Yes, I'll do it, Abe, but don't you mention a word, not a word. I've taken you into my confidence and asked your advice, and you mustn't even whisper it around. You'll probably hev another letter for me this week, and I'll read it to you. Yes, I'll keep you posted right along as to which gives in first, but we ain't to say nothin to nobody till it's all over."

At Farmer Taylor's the old man was at the gate with a glass of cider and a fried cake, and we had scarcely said good morning when he began:

"Say, Abe, I want to ask you a straight question and git a straight answer. I wouldn't ask it of nobody else in this world. You know my daughter Viola, of course?"

"Of course."

"Waal, now, between me'n you and the gatepost a feller has got struck on her. He's a windmill agent, and there's no end to the style he flings on. He don't seem to care as much for $5 as I do for 10 cents, and he says if he ever gets married he'll take his wife to Niagara falls and New York and all around. He's only an agent of the windmill company now, but he expects to own the hull business in less'n five years. He's struck on Viola, and Viola is struck on him, and I want to ask you what you think about it."

"Why, it seems to be all right," I said.

"Yes, it seems that way, but is a windmill man to be trusted, Abe? Is he straight up and down, like a lightning rod man or a tin peddler? If he's worth $600 in cash, as he says he is, and his gold watch and diamond pin are all right, I ain't goin to stand in Viola's way, but if he's only blown around it's my duty to bump him out. Did you ever meet with a windmill man, Abe?"

"Not that I remember."

"I've heard that they want a good deal on wind, same as their mills, but this feller seems to talk bizness. Up to this time he hasn't asked the gal to marry him. He's only squeezed her hand and praised her good looks and flung out hints, but it'll come within a week. You can see the love shinin right out of his eyes and hear his toes crack as he walks, and when a feller gits that way he's goin to lay his heart at a gal's feet purty soon. If it was your daughter, Abe, would you let her go ahead with her dream of bliss?"

"I think I would, until he proposes anyhow. When he asks her to be his wife, you'll have opportunity to ask him questions and find out about him."

"But I don't believe I will. You don't know what a way Viola's got. She's snippy and snappy and thinks she knows it all. Only yesterday she was tellin me that she was ruinin this love bizness and that I needn't trouble to interfere. I don't believe she'll let me ask him a single question. Would you box her ears and put your foot down?"

"Hardly. You might give her your opinion and let it go at that. If you go to opposin the match, they may run away. Things generally work out all right. See you ag'in tomorrow."

"By thunder, Abe," he said as he reached up to shake hands, "I'm goin to do jest as you say about it! You represent the American eagle and the great United States, and you've got a head on you. Yes, sir, I'll let that dream of bliss keep right along without interference, and if Viola makes any mistake about it she can't blame me. I was tellin her an hour ago that if windmills bobbed around every which way a windmill husband would probably do the same, but I'm done talkin. Let 'em squeeze and love and git married, and I'll keep right on hoein corn and cuttin three tons of grass to the acre. Much obliged, Abe. You've lifted a big load off my mind and kinder settled me down, and next week when I kill a sheep you'll come in for a hull hind quarter." M. QUAD.

MILO HUGHES PROVES A HERO.

Eight-Year-Old Boy Prevents a Railway Disaster.

Frankfort, Ind., April 12.—Milo Hughes, aged 8 years, who lives near the Monon railroad, about four miles from here, was walking along the creek near his home and when he neared the railroad bridge discovered that it was in flames. He knew the southbound local freight was about due, and ran with all speed to meet it. He succeeded in stopping the train, which was running at a high rate of speed to keep ahead of a passenger train only a few moments behind. The trainmen took the little fellow in their arms and kissed and hugged him as they would a baby. Undoubtedly the boy's act not only saved the freight from a frightful wreck, but the passenger train as well.

Roosters often crow over eggs they did not lay. Same with people who sell an imitation Rocky Mountain Tea, made famous by the Madison Medicine Co's advertising. 35c. Sold at Smith's pharmacy, kodak agents, next to postoffice.

FREIGHT DEPOT IS A CERTAIN THING

PLANS IN THE HANDS OF THE RAILWAY CONTRACTORS.

They Call for a Building 200 Feet Long, 33 Feet wide, and One Story High, Built of Brick with a Slate Roof—The Structure Will Face on Main Street.

There is no longer any question, but that the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul railroad will erect their freight station on the property lately purchased by them on North Main street.

The plans for the station were received this morning and are now in the hands of the contractors. They call for a brick building two hundred feet long by thirty-three feet wide, one story high, built of Watertown or Portage brick, with a slate roof. The foundation will be of stone and will be built about four feet above the track. The building will face on Main street and extend from the Windsor hotel on the north to Prospect avenue.

The rear of the building will be all doors, they being constructed on the same plan as the top of a roller top desk and run right up into the roof which will allow the cars to be loaded and unloaded directly into the station at any part of it. The Main street face will have a platform a long its front and four large doors for loading and unloading goods from the trucks.

The freight offices will also be in the building and will be in the end next to the Windsor hotel. They will be fitted up in first class shape to accommodate the largely increasing business of the company.

The building is modeled after the freight houses in the large cities and will be fitted up with all the modern appliances for handling goods.

There will be no side tracks on the Main St. side of the building which will be used for loading and unloading goods from the drays. The railroad tracks will be in the rear and will cause no inconvenience to people riding or driving along the street.

There was no guess work about the statement made by The Gazette months ago that the company would build its freight station on the property. Since that time even up to within a week or two all sorts of enterprises have been located on the property but it will now finally be put to the use for which it was purchased.

A great many merchants think it will hurt North Main street business property. It certainly cannot injure it as much as having a lot of old tenements and rookeries on the property which were an eye sore to all that passed them. It will also cause an increased travel up the street and, where there is increased travel there is increased trade.

The number of cars handled in a day will make very little difference in the switching done on North Main street. Tracks will be laid out on the land near the Hanson furniture factory and the switching done up there. The cars will be taken from there and run down to the freight house for loading and unloading, and will take up but very little of the street.

When completed the St. Paul company will have one of the most complete and centrally located freight houses in this part of the state.

FOUL PLAY RUMOR ON BADGER DEATH

Police Say There is No Foundation to It—An Inquest Was Considered Unnecessary.

A rumor has been in circulation around the streets during the last few days that Eugene Badger came to his death Sunday night by foul means. It was reported that he was last seen in company with a party that had a grievance against him and that he was pushed into the race.

The police say that there is absolutely no foundation for the story as they have traced his whereabouts Sunday night up to the time he started for home and the party that was with him at that time was above suspicion.

They claim that he was under the influence of liquor and in going across the race got onto the old bridge which was in bad condition and fell into the race. They account for his overcoat being up over his head when found by attributing it to the action of the water.

Many people thought that an inquest should have been held but it was thoroughly investigated by the police and an inquest was considered unnecessary.

He has received a great share of what is coming to him and would not make much by returning and finishing up the work.

TAKES THE PART OF RUSSIA.

Ralph James Talks of Eastern Situation.

—Czar Is Misunderstood.

New York, April 13.—A recent arrival from China is Ralph James, who for nearly fifteen years has been extensively engaged in mining at Kaigan, near Pekin, and in Siberia. Since his arrival he has placed orders for machinery to cost nearly $400,000. In an interview he said: "I have just returned from a long sojourn on Russian and Chinese soil. It is my opinion that Russia will never take Manchuria or permit others to seize it."

"Russia and the Russians are misunderstood. The evil of the misunderstanding is easily traced. It is due to the diplomatic use of newspapers by Great Britain. The latter is a jealous nation with a powerful navy. Her great factories have lost the trade with Russia and America has gained it."

Russia's Immense Interests.

"In 1893 the Russian government first received a concession in Manchuria from China. Russia made a formidable fort out of Port Arthur and constructed a railroad across Manchuria at a cost of over $50,000,000. Last summer during the troubles over $30,000,000 damage was done this railroad by the Boxers. In order to save her property and preserve it from entire destruction Russia sent 125,000 soldiers along the road and the Chinese, who had become roving bands of outlaws and thieves, were driven almost entirely from the country."

"The emperor of Russia is a home-loving man, and his subjects who are now in that Manchurian army are of the farming class of Siberia, and it is the emperor's wish to have his army sent home, where they are needed to prepare for the coming season's crops. Still, Russian property must be protected, and with such purpose in view Russia tried to gradually withdraw from Manchuria, making terms with Chinese officials to protect the great railroad."

Czar's Friendship for China.

"The Chinese are well aware of the friendship of Russia. They know that in 1893 the czar prevented Manchuria, Mongolia and Tibet from revolting and raising the Russian flag over their countries. The highest princes and priests of those three countries have visited the czar every year, praying for permission to raise the Russian flag over them, and every time these representatives received the same answer: 'Russia will never permit her flag to be raised over your countries. We want your countries, peopled by its present citizens, as a great open field and barrier between the populated districts of China proper and the borders of Russia.'"

"Had one gone along the line of the Trans-Siberian railway last fall, as I did, during the illness of the czar, there would have been a sight worthy the attention of other nations to behold and ponder over. All the way from Vladivostok in the east to Moscow in the west, men, women and children were kneeling in the streets in prayer for the recovery of their father, the czar."

REMARKABLE SUCCESS.

Of a New Catarrh Cure.

A large and increasing majority of the American people are catarrh sufferers. This is not entirely the result of our changeable climate, but because modern investigation has clearly proven that many diseases, known by other names, are really catarrh. Formerly the name catarrh was applied almost exclusively to the common nasal catarrh, but the throat, stomach, liver, bladder, kidneys and intestines are subject to catarrhal diseases as well as the nasal passages.

In fact, wherever there is mucous membrane, there is feeding ground for catarrh.

The usual remedies, inhalers, sprays, douches or powders, have been practically failures as far as anything more than temporary relief was concerned, because they simply dry up the mucous secretions, without having the remotest effect upon the blood and liver, which are the real sources of catarrhal diseases.

It has been known for some years that the radical cure for catarrh could never come from local applications, but from an internal remedy, acting on the blood and expelling the catarrhal poison from the system.

A new internal preparation which has been on the market only a short time, has met with remarkable success as a genuine, radical cure for catarrh.

It may be found in any drug store, sold under the name of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, large pleasant tasting lozenges, composed principally of antiseptic ingredients, Eucalyptol, Guaiacol, Sanguinaria, Hydrastin and similar catarrh specifics.

Dr. Ainsley in speaking of the new catarrh cure says: "I have tried the new catarrh remedy, Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, upon thirty or forty patients, with remarkably satisfactory results. They clear the head and throat more effectually and lastingly than any douche or inhaler that I have ever seen, and although they are what is called a patent medicine and sold by druggists, I do not hesitate to recommend them as I know them to be free from cocaine and opiates, and that even a little child may use them with entire safety."

Any sufferer from nasal catarrh, throat or bronchial trouble, catarrh of the stomach, liver or bladder will find Stuart's Catarrh Tablets remarkably effective, pleasant and convenient, and your druggist will tell you they are absolutely free from any injurious drug.

Marion Kooke, manager for T. M. Thompson, a large importer of fine millinery at 1658 Milwaukee avenue, Chicago, says: "During the late severe weather I caught a dreadful cold which kept me awake at night and made me unfit to attend to my work during the day. One of my milliners was taking Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for a severe cold at that time which seemed to relieve her so quickly that I bought some myself. It acted like magic and I began to improve at once. I am now entirely well and feel very pleased to acknowledge its merits." For sale by People's Drug Co., and King's pharmacy.

J. G. Monahan and wife of Darlington were in the city last evening on their way home from Madison.

Do not leave home on a journey without a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It is almost certain to be needed and cannot be procured while you are on board the cars or steamship. It is pleasant, safe and reliable. For sale by People's Drug Co., and King's pharmacy.

A COMMON ERROR.

The Same Mistake is Made By Many Janesville People

It's a common error to plaster the aching back, to rub with liniment rheumatic joints, when the trouble comes from the kidneys. Doan's Kidney Pills cure all kidney ills, and are endorsed by Janesville citizens.

Mr. Samuel Griffin, of 203 Loenst St. journeyman carpenter, says: "I had a severe attack of la grippe and as a result weakness of the kidneys set in. The secretions from those organs were greatly disordered, annoyed me much at night and I seemed to have limited control of them. After finishing the treatment my kidneys were strengthened that I could sleep all night without being disturbed. I am better now than I have been for years and give all credit to Doan's Kidney Pills for bringing about this result."

For sale by all dealers. Price, 50 cents. Foster-McBurr Co. Buffalo, N. Y. sole agents for U. S. A. so on at King's Pharmacy.

Remember the name, Doan's, and take no substitute.

DIE IN COLORADO AVALANCHES.

Snowslides Following Four Days' Storm Claim Many Victims.

Denver, April 13.—Avalanches following four days of heavy snowfall on the eastern slope of the mountains have caused several deaths in mining camps and among railroad workmen. During the storm traffic on several lines was abandoned, many trains were buried in drifts and none was run except on special orders. Near Buena Vista a heavy snowslide came down Italian mountain, Taylor Park, where about 300 miners are employed. The depth of the snow makes communication with that point impossible, but it is reported that several lives were lost. A work train on the Florence and Cripple Creek road was buried under a mass of snow and rock near Adelaide, three men being killed and four seriously injured. The dead are: J. P. Allen, foreman; D. M. Maloney, Howard Whippis.

Several collisions occurred in the blinding storm between Denver and Pueblo, the most serious being at Eden, between the Rio Grande's Atlantic express and a Rock Island passenger train from the East, in which six persons were injured.

Arrest for Riffing Mail.

Philadelphia, April 13.—Postal inspectors arrested Jerome S. France, an employe of the main postoffice, in this city, on a warrant charging him with stealing and rifling the mail. France was what is termed a "state caser," and his duty was to distribute mail matter into cases for each state in the Union. For several weeks complaints have been received from various sections of the country of mail being tampered with, and the postal inspectors were put on the case, and as a result France was arrested while at work in the postoffice this morning. The inspectors say France made a partial confession.

State Reward for Triplets.

Topeka, Kan., April 13.—Governor Stanley has decided to give a present to every set of triplets born in the state.

This idea suggested itself to him upon the receipt of a letter from Mrs. Mary L. Cook of Kingston, informing him that she had just given birth to three girls.

"What we want in Kansas more than anything else just now is population," said he in his letter to Mrs. Cook, "and you are doing your full share toward accomplishing that desired result."

Kansas Public Sugar Mills Killed.

St. Louis, April 13.—The Kansas act for the issue of bonds by townships to establish sugar mills was declared invalid by a decision handed down in the United States court of appeals today. The court says: "A legislature cannot make a private purpose a public purpose by its mere fiat." The decision was given in the case of W. S. Dodge vs. Mission township, in which suit was brought to recover payment on coupons issued by the township under the act of 1890. The decision of the lower court is affirmed.

Engineer and Fireman Killed.

Santa Barbara, Cal., April 13.—A special engine, which was hurrying to the assistance of the north-bound passenger train on the Southern Pacific, jumped the track at Miramie, and crashed down a fifteen-foot embankment. The killed: Elmer Belev, Fresno, engineer; Perry, Los Angeles, fireman. Belev jumped from the cab and was instantly killed. Perry stuck to his post, but was pinned underneath the engine and was scalded to death.

Trencherous Tiger Mangles Trainee.

Indianapolis, Ind., April 13.—Frank C. Bostock, proprietor of the Zoo in this city, was attacked by the tiger Rajah and dangerously injured. The animals have been undergoing a course of training for the Buffalo exposition, and Mr. Bostock came here from Baltimore to direct the work. The surgeons say that Bostock may lose his left arm. His right foot and leg are also badly injured.

Robber Murders a Woman.

Mason, O., April 13.—Mrs. John McClung, wife of a wealthy retired farmer, was murdered by a robber who entered the house after Mr. McClung had gone to the barn to feed some stock. When the aged husband returned he found his wife dying on her bed, her skull having been crushed. The murderer left without securing any money or valuables.

BLOODY BATTLE IN ARABIA.

Ibu Rashid Defeats Mabarank, with Loss of 5,000 Men.

Bombay, April 13.—Ibu Rashid has recovered the kingdom of Nejd, central Arabia, after defeating Mabarank, sheik of Koweyt, who recently seized the city of Nejd and deposed Ibu Rashid, after a pitched battle. The army of Mabarank was lured into a narrow gorge, where the forces of Ibu Rashid swooped down from the mountains and overwhelmed their enemies. The fugitives who have reached gulf ports declare that 5,000 men were killed. The fate of Mabarank is not known.

It was announced in a dispatch from Bombay March 8 that Mabarank, the sheik of Koweyt, was then master of central Arabia, according to dispatches received by the Times of India, Mabarank having followed up his previous victory over the army of Ibu Rashid by driving the defeated troops across central Arabia, seizing the city of Nejd and deposing Ibu Rashid.

RECALLS ACT OF CIVIL WAR.

Reward Offered for Document Connected with Alabama's Sinking.

London, April 13.—Stories and memories of the Alabama have been revived here by an advertisement offering a reward for the recovery of a document conveying the thanks of the confederate states to John Lancaster for rescuing Capt. Semmes and part of the crew of the Alabama when the Kearsarge sunk her off Cherbourg.

The confederate steamer Alabama, Capt. Raphael Semmes, was attacked and sunk by the United States corvette Kearsarge, Capt. Winslow, near Cherbourg, France, June 19, 1864. The British yacht Deerhound picked up 39 persons, including Semmes and 14 of his officers, after which she headed for Southampton. Capt. Winslow's officers begged him to throw a shell at the Deerhound, but he refused. John Lancaster was probably the commander of the Deerhound.

Judge Day's Wife Stricken.

Cincinnati, April 13.—The wife of Judge W. R. Day, former secretary of state, suffered a stroke of apoplexy at her home in Canton and is not expected to recover. Judge Day is en route to Washington, and all efforts of his family to reach him with the sad news had been futile at midnight. President McKinley has been informed of Mrs. Day's critical condition, and is also trying to intercept the judge with telegrams.

clear my skin, my face was in a horrible condition, literally covered with red spots, pimples, blotches, such patches and freckles. And when ever the weather changed eczema, chaps and such humors added to my misery. At the end of a week, my skin began to clear, the freckles and moth patches disappeared, and the eczema and salt rheum were completely cured. ## Start Girls Right!

Many beautiful girls become invalids for life, because at the crucial period of puberty they pay no attention to the laws of health. Mothers should protect their daughters' health by giving them necessary information and proper treatment. When the menses come on a girl unawares in her inexperience she is either frightened into convulsions, or scared into trying to check the flow. Many girls have checked the flow and it has never started again. And as a result they have grown pale-faced, with "crow-wacks" on their cheeks, and dark half-moons under their eyes. A dose of taken every morning after a girl is twelve years old will bring the menses on properly and keep them regular. It will help her to develop into attractive womanhood and equip her for the duties of wife and motherhood. All druggists sell $1.00 bottles of Wine of Cardui.

The Hollywood, Asbury Park, N. J., February 3, 1900.
I read your advertisement in regard to Wine of Cardui in the Baltimore American, and it so favorably impressed me that on my visit to Baltimore during the holidays I purchased a bottle of it for my adopted daughter, who was suffering with female troubles. She had been under the doctor's care for some time, and when her periods would come on her suffering was something terrible. I induced her to try it and the first dose brought on her menses. She took it regularly according to the directions, and was greatly relieved. To use her own words, "it saved my life."

After Sickness

Take Vinol—Our Great Strength Creator.

IT GIVES ONE A SPLENDID APPETITE.

AND QUICKLY REBUILDS THE SYSTEM.

We Will Refund the Price of Vinol if It Fails.

The worst part of sickness, frequently, is getting over it. The patient's strength is depleted, his system is generally demoralized, relapses are continually feared, and naturally.

The one thing to aid recovery is to give the patient that which will enable him to get strong, and at the same time give strength direct to the different organs of the body.

Nothing will do this like Vinol. It acts directly on the stomach, creates a healthy appetite, and enables the digestive organs to obtain the necessary elements to increase the weight of the patient and to make new healthy flesh and muscle tissue and pure, rich, red blood.

The following is a letter showing where Vinol was taken and did good after a case of sickness. It reads as follows:

"I wish to certify to the very great benefit which has been derived from the use of Vinol in my family. My wife was very sick with the grippe and afterward was wholly run down. One bottle of Vinol places her on her feet in better condition than she had been before in six months. I heartily recommend and endorse it."—HENRY F. STURTEVANT, 81 Huntington St., Brockton, Mass.

Everything that is in Vinol is plainly printed on the label of each package.

We know Vinol is a splendid preparation, and in many cases we have been able to see for ourselves the wonderful results it brings about.

Remember that we guarantee Vinol and refund the purchase money if you are not satisfied.

Nervous Prostration.

A Noted Boston Woman Describes its Symptoms and Terrors.—Two Severe Cases Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

ADELE WILLIAMSON.

"I am so nervous! no one ever suffered as I do! There isn't a well inch in my body. I honestly believe my lungs are diseased, my chest pains me so, but I have no cough. I am so weak at my stomach, and have indigestion terribly, and palpitation of the heart; am losing flesh; and this headache and backache nearly kills me, and yesterday I had hysterics.

"There is a weight in the lower part of my bowels, bearing down all the time, with pains in my groins and thighs—I can't sleep, walk, or sit, and blue—oh goodness! I am simply the most miserable of women."

This is a most vivid description of a woman suffering with nervous prostration, caused by inflammation or some other diseased condition of the womb.

No woman should allow herself to reach such a perfection of misery when there is no need of it. Read about Miss Williamson's case and how she was cured.

Two Bad Cases of Nervous Prostration Cured.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM;—I was suffering such tortures from nervous prostration that life was a burden. I could not sleep at all, and was too weak to walk across the floor. My heart was affected so that often I could not lie down at all without almost suffocating. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it worked like magic. I feel that your medicine has been of inestimable benefit to me."

MISS ADELE WILLIAMSON,
196 N. Boulevard, Atlanta, Ga.

"I had nervous prostration terribly, caused by female weakness. I suffered everything; was unable to eat, sleep, or work. After a while I was induced to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I really began to improve on taking the first bottle. I continued to take the medicine, and am now better in every way, and feel like a different person. I am simply a well woman."

Magnetic Healing.

A Health Restoring Treatment.

Prof. Funk's Success

In curing disease is evidenced by the steadily increasing demand for his services. Nature's powers of healing proves a blessing to chronic sufferers and brings health and strength to the weak. Many have given testimony of the benefit received and cheerfully tell what this mode of treatment has done for them. Will mention that of a lady over fifty years old. Has had stomach and bowel trouble and constipation for many years. Her head ached almost constantly, due to chronic gastritis; her bowels did not act without the daily use of purgatives. She says

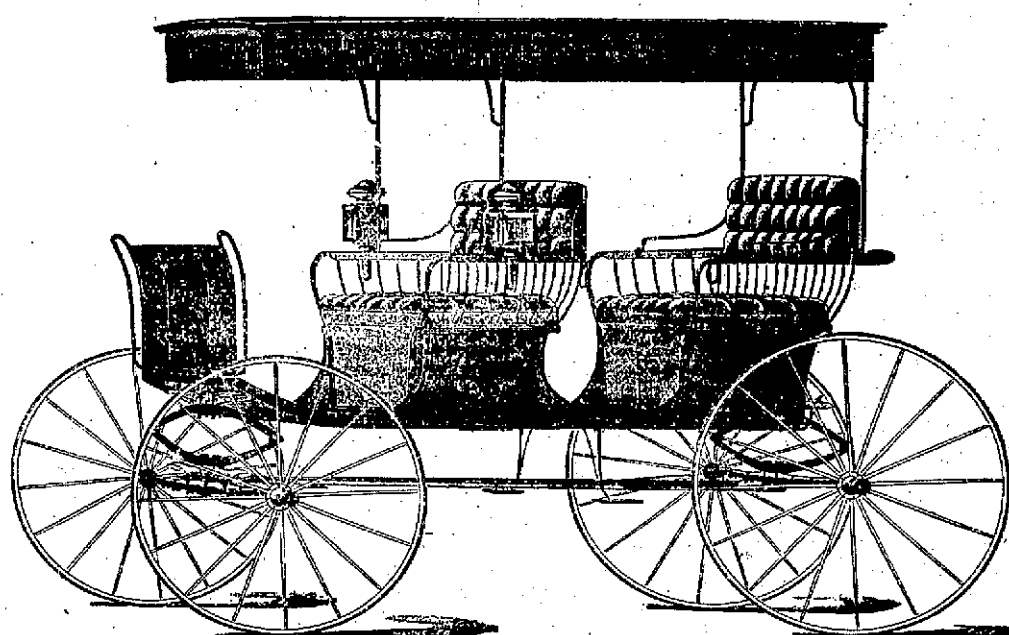

"I am glad to say that I have taken Magnetic Treatment by Prof. Funk. I have taken but three treatments and can honestly say I have had more relief from headache and pain in my stomach since I commenced treatments, than I have had from all the medicine I have taken for years. I cheerfully recommend Prof. Funk's method to all who have been suffering as I had been."

MRS. HERMAN KREBS,
Janesville, Wis.

Prof. Funk treats all manner of disease, acute or chronic, without the use of drugs, surgery or mechanical appliance of any kind. Instructive this method of healing, it will cost you nothing and may mean health and strength for you. He treats all honestly, if he can not help you he tells you so and gives every one the benefit of examination and consultation absolutely free. There is nothing mysterious or superhuman about this method and he is always willing and glad to explain Magnetic Healing to any one interested and extends to the suffering a cordial invitation to investigate his method of healing. He has cured others, he can cure you.

Going to Build

Whether you contemplate building at an early date or not, you should have a copy of "BAKER'S TWENTIETH CENTURY HOMES." It is the most complete book of Architectural Designs published. Nearly 150 pages, printed on heavy enamel paper. It is not a theoretical book. Every design shown is from the actual working plans of buildings that have been erected under the direction of our supervising architect. Consequently it is practical in every respect. It embraces subjects from an attractive cottage at a few hundred dollars to a modern, up-to-date residence, costing many thousands of dollars. The perspectives are full-page illustrations while the floor plans are half-page sketches.

The descriptions are complete and easily understood; in fact it is an ideal book of practical, up-to-date designs and intelligent descriptions. The regular price is $2.00 but we would like to present you a copy free of charge. If you could call at our office we would take pleasure in presenting you a copy free of charge. As this is not possible, we will send you a copy by express, charges prepaid upon receipt of only 25c, to cover cost of transportation.

DOINGS OF THE LAW MAKERS.

ILLINOIS.

Friday, April 13.

The senate advanced to third reading Mr. Stubblefield's bill taxing the premiums of foreign fire insurance companies and made it a special order for next Wednesday. As amended the tax is reduced to 2 per cent on gross premiums, but applies to all classes of insurance companies, life as well as fire. Another amendment provides that no reduction in the tax shall be allowed on account of cancellations or reinsurance.

The minority members of the committee appointed to investigate charges of mismanagement of the Southern Illinois penitentiary report in part as follows:

That the defalcation of Kursdorfer, lately indicted in the Circuit Court of Randolph county, to the extent of $175.35, as mentioned in majority report, is only a partial and incomplete report thereof; that a shortage of $100 due a stone firm in Monroe county, Indiana, and other shortages for stone shipped to and from said prison, are not included in said report; that it allowed to introduce the evidence of witnesses they would have shown that hundreds of bushels of potatoes not mentioned in the majority report were purchased from political friends at ten and fifteen cents per bushel cost to the state above local market prices; that a carload of cider belonging to the warden, and large shipments of lumber from the sawmill of the warden in Clay county were sold to the state and shipped to the prison, such sales of lumber being made through one Moore of Louisville, Ill., as agent for said warden.

NEW PERIL TO BRITISH.

Natives Threaten to Rise Against English in South Africa.

London, April 13.—Advices from Pietermaritzburg received here show that there is peril of a general uprising of the natives throughout South Africa against Great Britain and all Europeans who claim suzerainty. The seditions thus far reported among the tribes in and around the Transvaal and Cape Colony are of a serious nature. The movement is headed by native ministers, who preach the doctrine of "Africa for the Africans" and incite them to throw off the yoke of what they call "the tyranny of the whites." The agitation is fanned by boer leaders, it is said, who will not hesitate to join issue with the aborigines. The British authorities are carefully watching the propaganda and the meetings of natives and boers. They are reluctant to interfere, however, through fear of making martyrs of the ringleaders, which would foment the rebellion.

Eighty Boers Captured.

London, April 13.—A dispatch from Gen. Kitchener, from Pretoria, says Col. Monro's Mounted infantry, after two hours' hard fighting has captured eighty prisoners, including Commandant Bresla, at Letfindeyue, near Dewetsdorp. A fresh series of dispatches and editorial reflections upon a revival of negotiations between Lord Kitchener and Gen. Botha lacks the flavor of novelty. There is too much method in Gen. Dewet's madness to convince military men that he has become demented or irresponsible.
